Email: caroline.stone@3pb.co.uk

Academic Qualifications

MA (Hons), Downing College, Cambridge

Bar Vocational Course, BPP Law School (9th in year of 300)

Caroline Stone's practice focuses on public and regulatory, employment and asset forfeiture law. Recent cases of note include acting as junior counsel in a 6-week 'fitness to practise' hearing before the General Medical Council and litigation involving a national security dimension.

In March 2011, Caroline was appointed to the 'C Panel' of the Attorney-General's List of Junior Counsel.

Caroline has experience of advocacy in the High Court, County Courts, Employment Tribunals and various specialist Tribunals. She also has a busy advisory practice. Please see her specialist profiles for further information.

Caroline's meticulous attention to detail, pragmatic advice, personable approach and keen instinct for legal argument are among her key strengths.

Prior to joining 3PB, Caroline was a Judicial Assistant at the War Crimes Chamber of the State Court of Bosnia and Herzegovina, Sarajevo, which culminated in assisting to draft a verdict (2007). In 2006, she worked as a researcher on the 'Permission Stage Project', a Nuffield Foundation-sponsored study into the mechanics of judicial review, undertaken by the Human Rights Centre at the University of Essex. This was preceded by a 7-month stint as a Legal Intern at the Public Law Project.

In 2009, Caroline was nominated for a Bar Pro Award for her involvement in R (Compton) v Wiltshire PCT [2009] EWHC 1824 (Admin), for which she received a special commendation from the judging panel.

Following the award of an outgoing Pegasus Scholarship, in late 2011 Caroline will undertake a 2 month secondment at the Legal Resources Centre, Cape Town, one of South Africa's pre-eminent public-interest law clinics. Cases will involve refugee and housing law.

Caroline was published in the 2010 Edition of the Legal 500's 'Who's Who in the Law'.
