

3PB Barrister Profile

Hamish Dunlop

Call 1991

Email: hamish.dunlop@3pb.co.uk

Personal Injury & Clinical Negligence

Hamish acts for both Claimants and Defendants in all types of personal injury claims in the High Court and County Court. His practice covers:

- industrial accident and employer's liability cases (offices, industry and construction)
- industrial disease and deafness claims
- actions against the MOD involving service personnel
- fatal accidents
- occupiers' liability
- product liability
- road traffic accidents (including those involving low velocity impact)
- Highways Act claims
- leisure/sporting accidents
- marine accidents
- proceedings against clubs and societies
- assault
- injury at school
- fibromyalgia and claims involving alleged malingering.

His workload includes high value claims involving: serious multiple injuries; housing requirement; lifetime personal and medical care.

Hamish undertakes clinical negligence claims involving both injury and death.

He is willing to accept instructions under a conditional fee agreement.

Professional Qualifications and Appointments

- Accredited Mediation Advocate

Professional Bodies

- Family Law Bar Association
- Western Circuit

Notable Cases

Cook v Kurwa and Turner (2007)

Claim against treating clinicians alleging late diagnosis of malignant tumour.

Evans v Oxford Radcliffe Hospital (2007)

Suing on behalf of a widow (and executrix) for the death of her husband. Claim alleged negligence in the course of operative procedure to treat an aneurysm.

Fellows v John Werrell & Sons (2004):

Junior in High Court action arising out of an accident at work. Case involved a cauda equina lesion; life-long severe disability;

Kwumasi v Sarfo (2006):

RTA in which Claimant suffered significant spinal damage and rendered a paraplegic;

Sorensen v Royal United Hospital NHS Trust (2006)

Suing on behalf of a widow (and executrix) for the death of her husband. Claim alleged negligence in their treatment of him as his condition deteriorated from hypoxia and hypotension.

Timmings v Ministry of Defence (2007); representing a soldier who suffered traumatic brain injury in an accident at work.

Woodcock v Ministry of Defence (2005):

representing a soldier who suffered a serious brain injury while on manoeuvres in Kosovo;