Academic Qualifications

LLB (Hons) University College London (UCL)

BVC BPP Law School London

Naomi joined chambers in 2008 after successful completion of her pupillage at 3PB. She undertakes work in the following areas:

- Personal Injury
- Commercial and Business

Please see individual profiles for a discussion of the work undertaken in each of the above areas.

Naomi endeavours to provide a swift and comprehensive response to Instructions in all aspects of her work.

Prior to commencing pupillage Naomi worked in the personal injury and clinical negligence team at Kingsley Napley where she gained valuable experience in legal research, drafting and advocacy. She has also worked within the Commercial Property department at Eversheds Solicitors LLP.

Naomi has also undertaken work on a pro-bono basis for FRU (Free Representation Unit) and the Legal Advice Clinic whilst at Bar School.

Outside of the law Naomi is a keen pianist, enjoys all things outdoors and is an adventurous traveller.

Publications

In 2008 Naomi was commissioned by HHJ Hope to write an article detailing the European Influences on the Criminal Law of the UK. Her paper was published and distributed and discussed at a symposium of European Judges in Amsterdam.
