

3PB Barrister Profile

Nicholas Braslavsky QC

Call 1983, Silk 1999

Email: nicholas.braslavsky@3pb.co.uk

Academic Qualifications

LLB, PhD (Birmingham)

Nicholas Braslavsky has a specialist practice in medical negligence (including orthopaedic, obstetric, gynaecological, intensive care, anaesthetics, vascular, accident and emergency, ophthalmic, ENT and neurology) and all aspects of personal injury including those arising from road traffic accidents, industrial diseases (such as asbestosis), employer's liability, product liability and public liability.

Publications

Nicholas Braslavsky's publications include articles in the New Law Journal, Justice of the Peace and Police Review.

He contributes regularly to conferences including Legal Aspects of Medical Negligence for clinicians (1996) and Developments in Procedure (1994).

Some notable recent cases

Berg v Trafford BC [1989] HLR 47

GMPC v Bent [1996] JP 297

Hill v West Lancashire Health Authority (1997) 8 Med. LR.

R v Manchester Crown Court, ex p. Ashton [1994] 1 AC 9 (HL)

Walkin v South Manchester Health Authority [1995] 1 WLR 1543

(limitation of actions and failed sterilisation)

Wizniewski v Central Manchester Health Authority (1996) 7 Med. LR 248

Professional Qualifications and Appointments

- Deputy High Court Judge

- Legal Assessor to the General Dental Council

Professional Bodies

- Member of Northern Circuit Executive Committee
- Personal Injury Bar Association
- Professional Negligence Bar Association (PNBA)