Property & Chancery

Victoria is recommended by the Legal 500 Directory 2011 as "one to watch on the insolvency and IP front".

Victoria has a broad based commercial/chancery practice with an emphasis on Intellectual Property and Insolvency.

Intellectual Property

Her IP practice covers all aspects of copyright, trade marks, designs, passing off, and breach of confidence actions. She has extensive experience in the High Court, Patents County Court and Trade Marks Registry including applications for interim injunctions and other forms of interlocutory relief.

Victoria has been involved in advising major organisations in the film and music industries in relation to online copyright infringement and has advised and represented many other companies and individuals including well known cosmetic and fashion labels, publishers and brand owners in relation to their IPRs.
